TRIB HAPPY OVER TUCKERS' NEW RULING

Court Permits Introduction of Testimony of Conditions On Border.

By HARRY REUTLINGER

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. June 7. Attorneys for the Chicago Tribune in the Henry Ford-Tribune $1,000,000 libel suit are jubilant today over the ruling of Judge Tucker which permits them to introduce testimony concerning conditions along the Mexican border in 1216. previous to the time United States forces were sent there.

They regard this ruling as the wedge by which they plan to drive home their contention that statements alleged to have been made by Ford might have aggravated conditions along the Rio

Texas rangers and women whose nusbands and sons were slain by Mexican bandits are awaiting to testify for the Tribune and it is expected several of these will be called when court reconvenes next Monday. That this testimony will be full of pathos and human interest was clearly demonstrated by the story told by Mrs. Nellie Austin, of Sebastian, Tex., who described the slaving of her husband and son by Mexicans on August 6, 1915.

Mrs. Austin told how the Mexicans came to the Austin ranch, demanded guns and ammunition and then led Austin and his son Charles away. Later a workman brought word that teh handits had slain the two Americans and Mrs. workman brought word that the bandits had taken, found the bodies of her hushand and son hidden in the shrubbery along the roadside.

LESSONS IN OPTOMETRY

BY E. C. CARROLL Of Carroll & Newton

LESSON FOURTEEN.

Is phesbyopia, or old sight, dim-cuit to diagnose or correct? No, it is extremely simple.

Is it considered an error of vision?

No. a person's eyes may be nor-mal up to middle life, and no glasses may be necessary until presbyopia renders them necessary. Should presbyopic people change their glasses frequently?

Yes, they should be changed at least every two years. Great changes have taken place, have they not, in Optometry in recent years?

Yes, important changes and advances have taken place, and are still going on.

In what particulars?

Optometry is being recognized more and more as a profession, and the studies which a person must master before he can become an Optometrist are being increased in number and enlarged in scope.
